

Holmes County Farmer

THURSDAY..... MAY 10, 1860

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

To The Democracy.

The Democrats of Holmes County are requested to meet at the Court House at Millersburg on Saturday, the 19th day of May, in 1 o'clock P. M. to elect four delegates to the State Convention to be held at Columbus on the 24th of May.

Also, at the same time and place the Democracy of Hardy Township will proceed to nominate, by ballot, between the hours of 1 o'clock P. M. and 5 o'clock P. M., a candidate for Justice of the Peace; to be elected on the 2nd day of June.

New Boot & Shoe Shop.

By reference to advertisement you will see that Mr. B. M. Spencer has opened a Boot & Shoe shop, on Main street. As a well dressed foot is a very desirable thing, our citizens would do well to give him a call.

Cleveland Agricultural Works.

The attention of farmers is called to the advertisement of BALDWIN, DWYER & CO., manufacturers of agricultural implements, Cleveland, Ohio.

R. W. NEWTON is agent for the sale of these implements in Holmes county.

New Goods.

The attention of the citizens of the western part of the county is called to the advertisement of GEORGE REED, Nashville. Mr. Reed has received a large and well selected stock of new Spring goods of every variety. It is said that he bought cheap in the East and of course he will sell cheap. The ladies and the rest of mankind are invited to call and have their wants all supplied.

A Texas Jury.

A jury in Texas lately acquitted a man on the charge of horse-stealing, although the crime was clearly proven against him, simply because he stole the horse to escape with his sweet-heart, who was waiting to marry him if acquitted. "The jurors had probably all been in love themselves, at one period or another of their lives, and there was not perhaps one of them but what would have done the same thing, in their younger days, if they couldn't get their wives without."

Ring Talk.

A detailed account of the great fight, published in Bell's Life, tells us that the combatants struck each other with mauls and bunches of fives upon the head, the nut, the conk, the canister, the nodule, the mug, the knowledge box, the nose, the sneeze, the snapper, the snuffer, the snuffay, the nozze, the mazard, the eyes, the ogles, the peepers, the mouth, the kissers, the whisker, the oration trap, drawing the blood, the claret, the ruby, the crimson, the house-brewe, the gravy; and in several instances knocking the unfortunate knocker off his pins, his pegs, his stumps, and his foundation, to say nothing of boring, illuting and sending him to grass.

Court.

Court is still in session. Several important cases were tried and disposed of last week, among which are the following:

State of Ohio vs. Jesse Uhl—verdict for defendant.

E. W. Forbes and W. M. Louther et al. vs. Lucia Louther et al.—verdict for Plaintiff.

Pitcairn Chambers vs. John Graham—verdict for Plaintiff.

This week an important case is being tried—occupying several days—which was removed to this Court from Coshocton county.

Robbery.

Two gentlemen named GAILL, stopping at the Ohio House, in this place, had $265 in money stolen on Saturday morning of last week. It appears that one of the gentlemen got up in the morning at the first ringing of the bell and passed down stairs, leaving the door of their room partly open. The other, who kept the money in a wallet in his pantaloons pocket, was awaked also, but not arising immediately, fell asleep again, and when he awoke for the second time found that he had been robbed. Suspicion at once rested upon a man whose name we learn is FULLER, who had been loitering about the hotel a couple of days, but who had then disappeared. He was soon traced to Holmesville, six miles north of this place, where he showed the money and accounted for the way in which he got it in no very suspicious manner. The Sheriff and several others immediately started in pursuit, and by five o'clock in the afternoon returned with the thief in custody, having captured him in Worcester.

The much credit cannot be given to Sheriff FRENCH, and also to Mr. GEORGE HOWARD, for their vigilance and activity in tracing the prisoner. Mr. GAILL identifies the money with uncommon accuracy. The prisoner was tried before Justice CUMMINGS on Monday, and held to bail in the sum of five hundred dollars, in default of which he was committed to jail.

On Tuesday a Grand Jury was called and an indictment was found against him. It is the intention of the Prosecuting Attorney to have a hearing of the case this Court, and he will probably be tried the latter part of this week.

J. Mulvane's Column.

We call particular attention to J. Mulvane's column. Mr. M. is in constant receipt of fresh goods and new styles, and in addition to this, is selling at a very low margin on New York cost. Those who are not bound will find it to their advantage to go and see his stock before going elsewhere. The general idea has been that he doesn't buy produce, this is not the case as the amount weekly shipped will verify.
